We have an exciting opportunity for enthusiastic and motivated individuals to join our friendly and well-established team of Learning Support Assistants. This role involves working closely with students providing personalised support, helping them overcome barriers to learning and achieve their full potential.

JLC is an open access post-16 education provider which attracts students with Learning Difficulties and Disabilities (LDD). Our students range from Entry Level 1 to Level 3 and have a wide range of additional support needs including ADHD, sensory impairments, mobility issues, and Autism Spectrum Disorder.

We take pride in providing more than just a workplace! At JLC, we foster a vibrant college community where departments, staff, and students unite. Joining our team means experiencing a collaborative and inclusive work culture, participating in diverse and engaging activities and events, and utilising state-of-the-art resources and facilities. Additionally, you will have the chance to work alongside dedicated professionals and pursue opportunities for your own CPD growth.
