An Exciting Catering Manager Role at John Leggott College

We are seeking an experienced and motivated Catering Manager to lead our busy and welcoming catering service. This is an excellent opportunity for a committed catering professional who enjoys leading a team, delivering high standards, and creating a positive dining experience for students, staff, and visitors.

As Catering Manager, you will be responsible for the day-to-day management of the catering operation, ensuring the service runs efficiently and safely while maintaining excellent standards of food quality and customer care. You will take a hand-on approach to managing food production and service across all counters, overseeing tills, supporting service delivery, and stepping in where needed to ensure smooth operation.

This role would suit someone with strong experience in catering or food service, who has previously supervised or managed staff and enjoys balancing operational delivery with leadership responsibilities. You should have a good working knowledge of food hygiene and health and safety requirements, strong organisational skills, and a proactive, solutions-focused approach to work. Experience within an education or public-sector setting would be welcomed but is not essential.

In return, we offer a rewarding role within a supportive and community-focused environment, where you will have the opportunity to make a real impact on an essential college service and lead a valued team.

Salary: Support Staff Point 19 £36,564 per annum full-time equivalent
