

Teacher of English

1 FTE – Permanent

Term Time Only

Start in Academic Year 2026/27

Join our team as a Teacher of English at JLC!

Are you passionate about inspiring the next generation? At John Leggott College, we are proud to offer a vibrant and forward-thinking environment where both staff and students thrive.

The English Department will be in the state-of-the-art classrooms based in our new build. The college currently offers successful GCSE and A Levels in both English Language and English Literature as separate specialist subjects. The Department engages in a wide variety of enrichment activities, encouraging students to enter 'young writers' competitions, Journalism Internship, Book Club and the Feminist Society.

We have invaluable links with English Departments in leading universities and local schools as well as organising guest speakers from subject specialists such as eminent linguist Professor David Crystal and numerous careers talks, including BBC broadcast journalism and speech and language therapy.

The post may suit an experienced schoolteacher or a practitioner from an FE background. We welcome applications from newly qualified teachers and candidates looking to take their first steps into teaching who are able to demonstrate the necessary skills and enthusiasm for the post.

At JLC, we go beyond the curriculum. We're passionate about enriching our students' experience through opportunities that build cultural capital, develop wider skillsets, and prepare them for life beyond college. Whether it's through enrichment activities, career guidance, or tailored support, we empower our learners to achieve their full potential.

At John Leggott College, we invest in our staff as much as we invest in our students. By joining us, you will benefit from:

♦ Modern Sports and State-of-the-Art Facilities – Including a fully equipped sports hall, fitness suite, outdoor pitches, and access to a wide range of physical activity resources that support practical and theory-based teaching; newly developed Clinical Health Suite, featuring a cutting-edge mock hospital ward and primary school room, provides an immersive, real-world learning experience.

♦ Career Development & Progression – Whether you're an experienced educator or transitioning from a sporting or coaching background, we offer tailored CPD, leadership development programmes, and mentoring support for Early Career Teachers.

♦ A Thriving Teaching Community – Collaborate with a passionate team of professionals across Sport, Public Services, and Health, with access to networking, training, and innovative teaching resources.

♦ Outstanding Staff Benefits – Enjoy a highly competitive package, including the Teachers' Pension Scheme (TPS), free on-site parking, catering facilities, and access to an extensive range of staff wellbeing initiatives and discounts.

Salary: Teacher PT 1-9 (£33,465 - £51,714) Suitable for Early Career Teaching, depending on qualifications and experience.
