Teacher of Criminology with Psychology

1 FTE – Permanent

Term Time Only

Start in Academic Year 2026/27

Join our team as a Teacher of Criminology at JLC!

Are you passionate about inspiring the next generation? At John Leggott College, we are proud to offer a vibrant, inclusive, and forward-thinking environment where both staff and students are supported to thrive.

We are seeking an enthusiastic and committed Criminology specialist to join our successful Social Sciences Department. The role is primarily focused on Criminology, with potential teaching in Psychology for the right candidate. The department is highly supportive and well resourced, with a strong commitment to delivering engaging, high-quality learning experiences. We are proud of our track record of improving student outcomes and fostering a positive, collaborative teaching environment.

We benefit from strong and well-established links with Social Science departments at leading universities, as well as close partnerships with local schools. Our curriculum is further enriched through guest speakers and subject specialists, offering students valuable real-world insight and progression opportunities.

This post would suit an experienced school or FE practitioner, but we also welcome applications from newly qualified teachers and those looking to take their first steps into teaching, provided they can demonstrate the skills, passion, and enthusiasm required for the role.

At JLC, we go beyond the curriculum. We're passionate about enriching our students' experience through opportunities that build cultural capital, develop wider skillsets, and prepare them for life beyond college. Whether it's through enrichment activities, career guidance, or tailored support, we empower our learners to achieve their full potential.

At John Leggott College, we invest in our staff as much as we invest in our students. By joining us, you will benefit from:

- ◆ Modern Sports and State-of-the-Art Facilities – Including a fully equipped sports hall, fitness suite, outdoor pitches, and access to a wide range of physical activity resources that support practical and theory-based teaching; newly developed Clinical Health Suite, featuring a cutting-edge mock hospital ward and primary school room, provides an immersive, real-world learning experience.

- ◆ Career Development & Progression – Whether you're an experienced educator or transitioning from a sporting or coaching background, we offer tailored CPD, leadership development programmes, and mentoring support for Early Career Teachers.

♦ A Thriving Teaching Community – Collaborate with a passionate team of professionals across Sport, Public Services, and Health, with access to networking, training, and innovative teaching resources.

♦ Outstanding Staff Benefits – Enjoy a highly competitive package, including the Teachers' Pension Scheme (TPS), free on-site parking, catering facilities, and access to an extensive range of staff wellbeing initiatives and discounts.

Salary: Teacher PT 1-9 (£33,465 - £51,714) Suitable for Early Career Teaching, depending on qualifications and experience.

We can only shortlist candidates who have completed an application form and submitted the application to humanresources@leggott.ac.uk

If you have any questions or need any further information, please feel free to contact the HR Team on 01724 700195 or email humanresources@leggott.ac.uk

The closing date for applications is 09:00 on Wednesday 22nd April 2026

Interviews will be held on Thursday 30th April 2026

John Leggott College has a strong commitment to Equal Opportunities, Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of young people and expect all staff to share this commitment. All posts are subject to an enhanced check by the Enhanced Disclosure clearance through the DBS and other checks may be required.
