

Progress Tutor (x2)

37 hours Mon – Fri, Term Time +1 week,

Permanent

Salary: SSP 10 £27,733pa FTE (Actual £24,327pa)

Branston Community Academy, in partnership with John Leggott College, is launching an ambitious and innovative approach to sixth form provision in the City of Lincoln.

This partnership brings together the high-performing pastoral and academic expertise of John Leggott College with the local strength, aspiration, and community reach of Branston Community Academy, creating a sixth form experience that is truly student-centred, future-focused and transformational.

As part of this exciting new venture, we are seeking two outstanding Progress Tutors to play a pivotal role in shaping the success of our sixth form students from the very start.

The Role

Progress Tutors are at the heart of our sixth form model. You will act as the key pastoral and academic advocate for a cohort of students, delivering high-quality tutorial provision, monitoring progress, attendance, and engagement, and working closely with teaching staff to ensure every learner thrives.

You will support students to develop strong study habits and academic skills, resilience, independence, and confidence and clear progression plans for higher education, apprenticeships, or employment.

This is a role for professionals who believe that exceptional pastoral care and academic rigour go hand in hand.

The role is primarily based at Branston Community Academy, Lincoln, where you will work daily with students and staff as part of the sixth form team.

As this is a genuine partnership role, there will be a requirement on specific dates to work from John Leggott College, Scunthorpe, for activities such as training, moderation, partnership events and quality assurance.

Why join us?

- Be part of a new and innovative sixth form model from the outset
- Help shape the culture, systems, and student experience of a growing provision
- Work within a strong, supportive partnership between two respected institutions
- Make a tangible difference to young people at a crucial stage of their education
- Access professional development across both organisations

This is a rare opportunity to help build something new, while benefiting from the stability, expertise and reputation of an established partnership.

Additional Benefits:

- Collaborative work culture with opportunities for personal and professional growth.
- Supportive, inclusive, and innovative working environment.
- Access to professional development and training opportunities.

- Opportunity to positively impact the lives of young people.
- Term time working
- Free onsite parking
- Catering Facilities
- Access to an extensive range of staff discounts
